

Multimedia Services

mww offers a range of excellent multi-media services for your next conference, event or training initiative. Including high quality digital still photography and excellent video photography and editing services, this is the ultimate way to record your success.

CD Diary

Capture your event as it unfolds. Our professional film crew will follow your event from start to finish delivering your delegates their own personal film of the conference experience.

Conference follow up Keynote Refreshers

Our guiding philosophy is that any conference programme without home applications is an indulgence. With so much information to be absorbed during a conference we can assist with a take home audio CD or DVD with all your speakers' key points for the car home and office.

Corporate Videos

Add a spark to your event. Our professional team of actors, writers and directors will produce a conference tool with a difference. An entertaining video package highlighting your products, key messages or even motivational film clips. With our quality sound and editing an "In house video" is a perfect pick me up for your keynote session.

Packages

We offer Platinum, Gold and Silver multimedia packages for your event. Or our services can be un-bundled to suit your budget / need.

Platinum: Package includes: Professional videographers and a professional stills photographer will capture high quality video and still images of the day. This footage will be edited into a highlights package with the option available to show stills highlight packages daily. We will then fine tune the edit and show a video highlights package during the conference close. A whole group photograph will also be taken. Within 14 days of conference close an edited stills and video highlights package set to music, will be produced and a DVD will be sent to your head office.
